Services

Review

The Bavarian Center of Finance, in its role as a mediator, increases the transparency of existing teaching and research facilities at Bavarian universities. In particular, we coordinate application-oriented research ideas in the financial services area.

Project cooperation

We accompany the establishment of practical consortia and implementation of product-oriented solutions of current problems in the finance sector.

Events – Getting players together

By staging, notably, the annual Bavarian Financial Summit, as well as conferences, seminars and meetings getting companies, universities and research institutes talking to each other and working together. These events devote themselves to subjects impacting upon the Bavarian Finance Network and upon other components of the world's financial community.

CompetenceCenter Finance & Insurance

The Bavarian Center of Finance has set up a portal serving the insurance and other sectors of the financial industry. The portal is comprised of a market square for projects, of the CareerCenter, and of a large number of other features facilitating the forging of working relationships between the financial services and the financial sciences communities.
